BJP sounds protest bugle over fee reimbursement

Charges the Congress Youth Declaration released by Cong MP Rahul Gandhi has gone with the wind

BJP state unit president N Ramchander Rao on Thursday warned the Telangana government that the party would intensify its agitation in support of students until pending fee-reimbursement dues and scholarships were released.

Addressing the "Fee Bakayi—BJP Ladayi" Maha Dharna organised by the Bharatiya Janata Yuva Morcha (BJYM) in Karimnagar, Rao accused the Congress government of failing to fulfil its promises to students and alleged that the delay in releasing funds was pushing students, parents and educational institutions into severe financial distress.

Rao alleged that around Rs 8,000 crore in fee-reimbursement dues were pending from the previous government and criticised the Congress government for failing to clear them after coming to power. He claimed that the State Cabinet had decided to release Rs 2,000 crore as an advance following the High Court's intervention, but alleged that the amount had not yet been released.

He said nearly 20 lakh students across Telangana were awaiting fee-reimbursement clearances. The delay, he alleged, had left college managements struggling to pay faculty salaries and threatened the functioning of educational institutions.

Rao accused the Congress of failing to honour the promises made under the 'Youth Declaration' and warned that the BJP would continue its agitation until the government addressed the issue. "If this government plays with the lives of students without releasing fee reimbursement and scholarships, the BJP will intensify its agitation," he said.

BJYM State president Ganesh Kunde said the youth wing had been campaigning for the past month over students' issues. He criticised police notices allegedly issued to students and college managements and warned of intensified protests, including collectorate sieges, if the dues were not released.

He demanded immediate clearance of fee reimbursement and scholarships and said Chief Minister A Revanth Reddy should resign if the government failed to address students' concerns. Thousands of students and youth participated in the protest.

Laxman bats for central law to protect breastfeeding mothers and infants

Hans News Service
New Delhi

RAJYA Sabha MP Dr K Laxman on Thursday submitted a representation to the National Commission for Women (NCW) seeking a comprehensive law for safeguarding the rights of breastfeeding mothers and infants.

In his representation to the commission, the MP highlighted that several laws and schemes in the country mandate the provision of crèche facilities at workplaces. However, there is no uniform law that guarantees the right of mothers to breastfeed their infants with privacy and dignity in public places.

This situation underscores the urgent need to establish feeding rooms, child-care rooms, and human milk banks in public institutions across the country.

Though there are several advisories, he said that most of those initiatives are scattered. A fragmented legal framework could not be enforced, leading to "mothers travelling to access railway stations, airports, metro stations, bus terminals, courts, universities, government offices, parks and other public places have been facing difficulties," he added.

Dr Laxman, in his representation, urged the NCW to recommend to the Centre a comprehensive enactment of the "Mother and Child Care (Public Facilities, Breastfeeding Support and Human Milk Bank) Act.

This would help enforce rights by providing necessary infrastructure, he said. Also, added rising the issue during the zero hour, as there is a pressing need for such an act in the country.

Jana Sena MP's son booked in Madhapur road mishap

Hyderabad

MADHAPUR police booked Sanjush Lingamaneni, son of Andhra Pradesh Jana Sena Rajya Sabha MP Lingamaneni Ramesh, for alleged rash and negligent driving in connection with the death of a 26-year-old woman employee in a road accident near Inorbit Mall. Police registered a case against Sanjush under Section 106(1) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS). According to police, Bharathi Mukhi, 26, who worked as a sales executive at the Lifestyle store in Inorbit Mall, was allegedly knocked down by an Aston Martin while crossing the road opposite the mall on August 16.

According to the FIR, Bharathi and her colleague Pooja Ashok had gone towards the nearby ITC Kohenur area for lunch. While returning to their workplace, Bharathi attempted to cross the road in front of the mall when she was allegedly hit by the Aston Martin driven by Sanjush.

Police said the car was allegedly being driven at high speed and in a rash and negligent manner. Bharathi suffered severe head injuries and sustained heavy bleeding. She was rushed to a hospital, where doctors declared her dead.

The case was registered based on a complaint lodged by Panjala Ashwin Kumar, the deceased woman's store manager. Police said further investigation was underway to establish the exact circumstances leading to the accident.

Traffic police crackdown on fake number plates

HYDERABAD: The Hyderabad Traffic Police has intensified enforcement against vehicles using fake, tampered or unauthorised registration number plates following a surge in complaints.

Police registered six criminal cases over the past week against individuals allegedly using fraudulent registration plates to conceal vehicle identities, evade traffic enforcement and violate regulations. Several vehicles were identified and seized during the enforcement drive. The cases were registered at Hadnoor police station in Sangareddy district, Kalapathar, Afzalgunj, Inthezargunj in Warangal district, Kamareddy Town and Musheerabad. The Traffic Police said only government-approved High-Security Registration Plates (HSRPs) are legally permitted on vehicles. Any unauthorised alteration, missing digits, obscured characters or use of temporary stickers in place of registration plates is illegal. Officials warned that the use of fake or manipulated number plates could result in criminal prosecution and immediate seizure of the vehicle.
