He appealed to voters to exercise their franchise in a free and fair manner without any fear.

Superintendent of Police Dr Fakkeerappa Kagineelli said the election code would be in force at Kurnool Municipal Corporation and Nandyal, Adoni, Yemmignoor, Dhone, Nandikotkur, Atmakur and Allagadda Municipalities besides Gudur Nagara Panchayat. Entry and exit check posts have been set up at the urban local body elections.

Strict vigil has been kept on the strangers and anti-social elements. Special police bando bast has been made at the sensitive and hyper-sensitive areas besides filing bind over cases on the problematic persons, stated the SP. District Deputy Election Officer (DDEO) and Nandyal Sub-Collector Kalpana Kumari were also present in the press conference.

Political activity picks up pace in Anantapur after SEC notification

HANS NEWS SERVICE
ANANTAPUR

WITH the State Election Commission issuing notification for the urban local body polls, there is a sudden spurt in political activity and many aspirants representing main political parties, the TDP and YSRCP going into a huddle with supporters. The homes of ex-councillors and corporators and fresh aspirants have become a beehive of activity. The Election Commission notification enthused political parties as the local body elections are fought on party and political lines.

There are eight municipalities and three Nagara Panchayats in the district. In all, there are 358 municipal wards for which 2,536 nominations had been filed in March 2020 and just at a time when the date of withdrawal of nominations was to expire on March 16, 2020, the SEC announced postponement of elections abruptly in the middle of election process.

Hindupur municipality has 38 wards for which 360 nominations had been filed, Dharmavaram 40 wards and 241 nominations had been filed. Tadipatri with 36 wards received 230 nominations, Guntakal with 37 wards got 234 nominations. Kadiri with 36 wards received 270 nominations and Gooty with 25 wards got 121 nominations. Rayadurgam with 32 wards got 166 nominations and Kalyandurgam with 24 wards got 184 nominations and Puttaparthi and Madakasira with 20 wards each received 118 and 96 nominations respectively.

Anantapur Municipal Corporation and Hindupur Municipality were ruled by TDP in the past. EX-MLAs of TDP are holding emergency sessions with supporters to determine candidates within their Assembly constituency domain. TDP of course for some time had been holding parleys expecting civic body elections anytime after panchayat polls and had been working out strategies to win civic body polls believing that urban voters will definitely be with the TDP as the party enjoys more urban support when compared to rural centric YSRCP. Political climate in the district suddenly is heating up.

Meanwhile, Collector Gandham Chandrudu told 'The Hans India' that the model code of conduct will come into immediate effect with the SEC releasing notification for the civic polls, picking up from where it stopped during last year March 15. According to the latest guidelines, those who want to withdraw from the electoral fray must come in person to effect withdrawal from contest and third-party withdrawal application will not be entertained.

TDP sarpanch aspirant's husband Bathina Loknath injured in attack by the YSRCP men at Atikalagundu village in Pathikonda constituency on Sunday late night during canvassing

Tension grips Nalakadoddi as TDP, YSRCP men clash

KURNOOL

TENSION prevailed at Nalakadoddi village in Pathikonda constituency on Sunday late night when the supporters of YSRCP and TDP clashed with each other during canvassing for sarpanch elections.

In the clash, one Bathina Loknath, the husband of sarpanch aspirant, was injured. The cops of Pathikonda police station on learning about the incident immediately rushed to the village and took stock of the situation.

According to information, one Bathina Hemavathi of Nalka Doddi village is contesting for sarpanch post on TDP banner. Her husband Bathina Loknath accompanied with some villagers has gone to Atikalagundu village for canvassing on Sunday night. Atikalagundu is a majra village with which sarpanch would be single to both villages (Nalakadoddi and Atikala-attack of YSRCP men. Bathina Loknath, speaking to media personnel, said they were peacefully urging voters to support the candidature of a sarpanch aspirant.

In the meantime, Bobby Reddy and his associates intercepted and threatened us to leave from the village immediately. Before we could convince them to leave in some time, they attacked us and injured several people, including me, alleged Bathina Loknath.

Based on the complaint of Loknath, Pathikonda police registered a case. The women, who also participated in the canvassing, alleged the YSRCP men were threatening everyone. They have also injured women despite their repeated requests to set them free. The women alleged the YSRCP men have taken 4 cell phones and a woman has lost 2 grams of gold chain.

The third phase of polling is likely to start in the constituency on February 17.
