Indian Navy gets indigenous anti-sub 'Androth'

NEW DELHI: In a move likely to enhance the Indian Navy's underwater capabilities, it has received 'INS Androth', the second of the eight ASW SWCs (Anti-Submarine Warfare Shallow Water Craft), built by Garden Reach Shipbuilders and Engineers (GRSE), Kolkata. It was delivered to the Indian Navy on September 13 at GRSE, Kolkata, marking yet another step towards self-reliance in defence manufacturing. According to a Naval spokesperson, the ASW SWC ships have been indigenously designed and constructed as per the Classification Rules of the Indian Register of Shipping (IRS) at GRSE, Kolkata, and it will strengthen the Navy's anti-submarine, coastal surveillance and mine-laying capabilities. The name 'Androth' holds strategic and symbolic significance, derived from Androth Island in the Lakshadweep archipelago, underscoring India's commitment to safeguarding its vast maritime territories.

MODI TARGETS CONG OVER 'INFILTRATION'

Accuses the GOP of siding with anti-nationals
Lays stone for projects worth ₹6,300 cr in Assam

PRIME Minister Narendra Modi on Sunday launched a scathing attack on the Congress during a public meeting in Assam's Darrang district, alleging that the party has consistently sided with anti-national forces and even terrorists groomed by Pakistan.

"Instead of standing with our brave soldiers, Congress has chosen to back infiltrators and those who threaten India's unity. This party has repeatedly provided cover to anti-national forces," PM Modi told the gathering at Mangaldai, adding that the BJP would not allow infiltrators to grab land or alter the state's demography.

Signalling a major leap in Assam's healthcare sector, Modi unveiled projects worth Rs 6,300 crore in Darrang district. The projects include Darrang Medical College along with a nursing college and a GNM school in Mangaldai town. It also includes the 118.5 km-long Guwahati Ring Road project, connecting Kamrup and Darrang districts in Assam and Ri Bhoi in Meghalaya. The Prime Minister hailed the BJP government's work in Assam,

PM Narendra Modi during the inauguration of a refinery at Golghat in Assam on Sunday

For its politics, Congress stands with every person and thought that is against India. We saw this even during Operation Sindoor. Today, when our Army carries out Operation Sindoor and uproots terror hide-outs across Pakistan, Congress chooses to side with Pakistan's Army. Instead of standing with our forces, this party furthers the agenda of those who shelter terrorists saying that they have begun to "correct those wrongs and remove illegal claims", as he accused the Congress party of encroaching on farmers' land and places of worship during their rule in the state.

"Encroachments on farmers' land and on places of worship were carried out under the previous Congress governments. Since the formation of the BJP-led NDA government, we have begun to correct those wrongs and remove illegal claims," he said.

"In Assam, lakhs of acres have been reclaimed from infiltrators," he claimed, adding, "The BJP's objective is to protect the country from infiltrators and restore its integrity. I challenge those politicians who defend infiltrators to come forward and face this issue, let them show what efforts they have made to remove infiltrators, compared with the efforts we have made."

SCCL's delayed participation in coal block auction Kishan blames it on BRS regime

VRC PHANI HARAN HYDERABAD

UNION Minister for Coal and Mines G Kishan Reddy has called out the erstwhile Bharat Rashtira Samithi (BRS) regime for its "policy blunder" that he says prevented Singareni Collieries Company Limited (SCCL) from participating in national coal block auctions in time. Speaking to 'The Hans India', he outlined the Centre's transparent coal allocation policy and its implications for Telangana's mining sector.

Reddy explained that, following the Supreme Court's landmark decision to cancel previous coal block allocations to both public and private entities, the Union government implemented a uniform auction-based policy. "Coal is national wealth. The Supreme Court mandated transparency, and since then, all coal blocks—new and previously allocated—have been put up for auction," he amplified.

While major public sector units like Coal India and Western Coalfields have actively participated in these auctions, Singareni Collieries remained absent due to the stance taken by the then BRS-led state government. "This non-participation delayed the auction of coal blocks in Telangana, which could have otherwise boosted the state's energy and employment prospects," Reddy remarked.
