

CONGRESS CONFIDENT OF SUCCESS IN LOCAL BODY POLLS

The party is buoyed by a “good feedback” from its ‘Janahita Padayatra’ and plans to leverage public support for its welfare schemes and BC reservation push

HANS NEWS SERVICE
HYDERABAD

BUOYED by the positive response to its ‘Janahita Padayatra’, the PCC (Pradesh Congress Committee) hopes to translate the support into votes in the upcoming local body polls.

While the party is conducting a survey for the Jubilee Hills by-elections, it is yet to undertake any such survey for the local body polls, citing “good feedback” from its recent campaigns. The Political Affairs Committee (PAC) meeting, likely to be held this Sunday, will chalk out a plan of action on how to mobilise voters.

The Congress party, which claimed a massive response to the first phase of the ‘Janahita Padayatra’, is overwhelmed by the support it received from locals. The party leadership now believes that welfare measures and schemes, including the latest ‘Sanna Biyyam’ scheme, have created a positive impact among the masses, particularly in the districts.

Another driving force is the issue of 42 per cent BC reservation in the state, where BCs representing different castes dominate.

The party is pursuing the matter at a national level. If the Centre fails to approve the bills, the next PAC meeting will explore legal and political options at its disposal, in light of the High Court’s directive for the completion of the election process by September 30. “We are very much confident of winning maximum seats this time. The PCC president’s assertions that a BC should be the next Chief Minister reflect the impact of the issue on Telangana’s politics. One likely option remains the implementation of the quota within the organisation by providing 42 per cent of seats to BCs,” said party sources.

In the second phase of the ‘padayatra’, which will begin on August 24, PCC president B Mahesh Kumar Goud has urged party ranks to ensure large-scale public participation.

He stressed the need to widely publicise the development and welfare programmes being implemented by the Congress government. “You might have seen the impact of the recent padayatra. We have got good feedback, particularly in light of the government’s push for reservations. There was no need to undertake a survey,” said the PCC president during a recent media interaction.

Six from Telangana among 210 panchayat representatives invited to attend I-Day fete at Red Fort

SIX panchayat representatives from Telangana were selected to attend the Independence Day celebrations at Red Fort in the national capital. J Sharmila (Bhadradi Kothagudem), R Srinivas Reddy (Jangaon), V Srinivas (Mahbubnagar), M Dastagiri (Gadwal), Ramkishore (Peddapalli) and Y V Raju (Ranga Reddy) will be amongst the special guests coming from 28 States and Union Territories to attend the Independence Day fete in Delhi. The Union Panchayati Raj Ministry on Thursday informed that a total of 210 panchayat representatives will be attending the Independence Day celebrations as special guests. An estimated 425 participants accompanied by their spouses and nodal officers, will take part in the celebrations, reflecting the commitment of the Government of India to recognising and strengthening grassroots leadership. The theme for this year’s programme ‘Aatm Nirbhar Panchayat, Viksit Bharat Ki Pahchan’ captures the vision of self-reliant panchayats as a key pillar of a developed India, the Ministry said.

Release pending scholarships, Muslim leaders urge CM

HYDERABAD

IN a letter to A. Revanth Reddy, the Chief Minister of Telangana, prominent Muslim scholars and community leaders have called for the immediate release of post-matric scholarships for minority students. They have requested that the Chief Minister take serious note of the difficulties faced by students in continuing their higher education and employment and ensure that the scholarships are released as soon as possible.

Prominent religious scholars and community leaders, including Moulana Khalid Saifullah Rahmani (AIMPLB), Moulana Shah Jamal ur Rahman Miftahi (Ameer, Millat-e-Islamia), Mufti Sadiq Mohiuddin Faheem Nizami (United Muslim Forum), Mufti Ghiyasuddin Rahmani (Jamiat ul Ulama), Dr. M. Khalid Mubashir uz Zafar (Jamat-e-Islami Hind), S. Q. Masood (ASEEM) and Mohd Faraz Ahmed (SIO), along with representatives of major Muslim organisations, have jointly signed an open letter addressed to the Chief Minister regarding the non-release of post-matric scholarships under the RTF scheme.

The letter highlights the urgent crisis faced by minority students due to the prolonged delay in scholarship disbursement.

The signatories have warned that the delay is pushing thousands of minority students into severe academic and financial distress, forcing many into debt, disrupting their education, and, in some cases, resulting in student dropouts.

The key demands in the letter were: the immediate release of all pending scholarships, the implementation of time-bound and transparent disbursement processes, and the allocation of special emergency funds to clear existing backlogs. The letter has been formally handed over to the Minister for Minority Welfare, the office of the Chief Minister, the Principal Secretary of the Finance Department, and the Secretary of the Minority Welfare Department, Shafiullah

He noted that any incident occurring in the village can be immediately identified through these cameras. He appreciated Rayikal Srinivas for his efforts in installing CCTV cameras to enhance the safety of the villagers.

The event was attended by CI Vijay Kumar, leaders Ashanna Goud, Krishnaiah, Pandu Nayak, Yashodamma, Errolla Yadaiah, and local residents.

SC verdict on voter deletions in Bihar a victory for democracy: PCC president

HYDERABAD

PCC president B Mahesh Kumar Goud welcomed the Supreme Court’s interim orders on the voter list prepared as part of Special Intensive Revision (SIR) released by the Election Commission in Bihar and termed it as a great victory for democracy.

In a media statement, the Congress leader applauded the Supreme Court’s direction that the names of 6.5 million deleted voters be published on the website within 48 hours. “The allegations of voter theft raised by Rahul Gandhi have been proven true by the Supreme Court’s verdict. It is regrettable that the Centre did not respond even though Rahul Gandhi insisted on a discussion in Parliament. The Election Commission must respond to Rahul Gandhi’s demand for implementing the ‘One Vote – One Person’ policy by linking Aadhaar,” he demanded.
