High alert as tiger moves near Annavaram

HANS NEWS SERVICE
RAJAMAHENDRAVARAM

FOREST officials have intensified efforts to track and capture a tiger that has been moving near Annavaram hill and surrounding villages in Kakinada district, prompting authorities to alert devotees and residents in the area. On Sunday evening, the tiger was spotted moving near Annavaram hill and close to the Pampa reservoir, raising concern among pilgrims visiting the temple. Following the sighting, temple authorities warned devotees staying in accommodation on the hill not to venture out at night. Staff attending duties on Monday were instructed to reach the hill only through temple buses from the toll gate. As a precautionary measure, devotees were not allowed to use the footpath route to the hill. Forest officials confirmed that the tiger crossed the Sankhavaram-Kathipudi road and moved through agricultural fields towards Mandapam village. Earlier, drone cameras deployed by the forest department detected the animal in an open field near the forest stretch between Sankhavaram and Annavaram. Though the tiger's presence was confirmed through VHF tracking equipment and the officials attempted to surround the area, the animal unexpectedly changed its route and moved away.

Drone camera captured the tiger near Mandapam village in Sankhavaram mandal

According to officials, the tiger has been creating concern among residents in Kakinada and Polavaram districts for the past 17 days. The animal had earlier caused panic in several villages in East Godavari district for nearly ten days before it was finally trapped near Kurmapuram. It was later released into the Papikonda forest region by forest authorities, but it appears to have strayed out of the forest area again and returned to nearby habitations. Efforts are under way to capture the tiger and shift it safely back into the forest. The operation is being carried out under the supervision of Divisional Forest Officer N Ramachandra Rao. Nearly 100 personnel, including forest staff, rescue teams and tranquiliser dart specialists, have been deployed for the operation with the help of drone surveillance and VHF tracking systems. Chief Conservator of Forests Srikantha Nath Reddy is personally monitoring the operation as officials continue their search in the surrounding forest and agricultural areas.

YSRCP hails Amarajeevi as a symbol of Telugu pride

MLC Lella Appi Reddy, former minister Vellampalli Srinivas, Sake Sailajanath, former MLA Malladi Vishnu and others pay tributes to the portrait of Amarajeevi Potti Srimamulu on the occasion of his 125th birth anniversary at YSRCP Central office at Tadepalli on Monday

GUNTUR

YSRCP president Y S Jagan Mohan Reddy on Monday said Potti Srimamulu symbolises the self-respect of Telugu people and that his supreme sacrifice for a separate state for Andhra continues to inspire generations.

YSRCP leaders paid rich tributes to the legendary freedom fighter on the occasion of his 125th birth anniversary at the party's central office in Tadepalli. Floral tributes were offered as leaders recalled his historic sacrifice for the creation of a separate state for Telugu-speaking people. Speaking on the occasion, party leaders said the name of Potti Srimamulu would remain immortal as long as the Telugu community exists. They remembered his 58-day fast unto death demanding a separate state for Telugu people, which ultimately paved the way for the formation of linguistic states in India.

MLC Lella Appi Reddy said such a selfless sacrifice for a linguistic state was unparalleled in world history. He added that the ideals of Potti Srimamulu are reflected in the leadership and governance approach of Y S Jagan Mohan Reddy, who, he said, has upheld values of integrity, credibility and commitment towards the state and its people.

Former MLA Malladi Vishnu recalled that inspired by Mahatma Gandhi, Potti Srimamulu undertook several fasts in his life, including the historic fast that eventually led to the formation of linguistic states in the country. Former minister Vellampalli Srinivas said the previous YSRCP government restored the celebration of Andhra Pradesh Formation Day on November 1 and honoured Potti Srimamulu's legacy. He criticised the present coalition government for allegedly neglecting his memory, including failing to allocate funds for the construction of a 58-foot statue while spending heavily on other projects. Former minister Sake Sailajanath said the life and dedication of Potti Srimamulu should inspire people to work with similar determination for the pride and unity of Telugu society.
