PROVE ALLEGATIONS, WILL QUIT: ADLURI TO HARISH

Welfare Minister says procurement process was transparent, accuses BRS of misinformation

HANS NEWS SERVICE
HYDERABAD

WELFARE Minister Adluri Laxman Kumar on Tuesday dismissed allegations of irregularities in the procurement of supplies for residential educational institutions, describing claims made by former minister and BRS Deputy Floor Leader T Harish Rao and senior BRS leader RS Praveen Kumar was baseless and politically motivated.

Addressing a press conference at the CLP Media Centre in Hyderabad, the Minister questioned the varying figures being cited by BRS leaders regarding the alleged scam.

"Harish Rao is alleging a Rs 2,000 crore scam, while RS Praveen Kumar speaks of a Rs 3,000 crore scam. Similarly, some media outlets aligned with the BRS are referring to it as a Rs 200 crore scam. They must first clarify the actual figure before making such allegations," he said.

Laxman Kumar challenged Harish Rao to substantiate the allegations with evidence, stating that he would resign from his ministerial post if the charges were proven.

The Minister rejected claims that he and Minister Ponnam Prabhakar were unaware of the procurement process. He said the tender process was initiated only after a review meeting chaired by Chief Minister Revanth Reddy and attended by ministers, senior officials and an IAS officer. All decisions, he said, were taken transparently and with the knowledge of the concerned ministers.

He also noted that the High Court had upheld the government's centralised procurement policy after objections were raised against it. All tenders, he added, were processed through the state's e-procurement portal under the supervision of senior IAS officers.

According to the Minister, e-tenders were invited on April 2 for the procurement of 27 categories of items required by students in residential educational institutions, including uniform cloth, school bags, trunk boxes, shoes and socks, bedding materials, notebooks, stationery kits, PT uniforms, tracksuits and utensils.

Providing details of the procurement process, Laxman Kumar said competitive bidding had reduced the price of bedsheets from Rs 425 to Rs 405. The procurement involved 3 lakh bedsheets, 2.29 lakh carpets, 6.49 lakh blankets and 1,500 towels, with a total value of Rs 70.86 crore.

Five companies participated in the trunk box tender, and the quoted price was reduced from Rs 1,299 to Rs 1,275 per unit through negotiations, bringing the total procurement value to Rs 41.40 crore. Three firms participated in the uniform cloth tender process, while the overall work order value stood at Rs 298.10 crore.

The Minister said the government had cancelled certain tenders where quoted prices were considered high, including those for notebooks and trolley bags. Tenders for PT uniforms and tracksuits are yet to be finalised.

Revanth pushes for bullet train stations at key TG hubs

HYDERABAD

CHIEF Minister Revanth Reddy made important suggestions regarding proposed bullet train corridors from Hyderabad to Mumbai, Bengaluru, and Chennai. During a review on high-speed rail projects and the Warangal airport, the Chief Minister emphasized that a station must be established near Ananthagiri in Vikarabad on the Hyderabad to Pune corridor.

Transport facilities connecting the Ananthagiri area directly to the regional IT hub were discussed extensively during the meeting.

Similarly, the Chief Minister suggested that a vital station for the Hyderabad to Bengaluru high-speed railway line should be set up at Bharat Future City. Stations at Nallamala near Mannanur and near Somasila, alongside the specific railway alignment to connect these prominent tourist centres, should be given priority.

Stating that Shamshabad should be designated as the central bullet train hub, the Chief Minister added that the Warangal airport design must reflect the heritage of the Kakatiya Empire. This includes establishing a large island featuring statues of Rudrama, Rudradeva, and a massive Nandi. Authorities were instructed to hold immediate design meetings with the Airport Authority of India.

Police urge motorists to update contact info on VAHAN

HYDERABAD

WITH an aim at ensuring that vehicle owners receive timely information, Hyderabad City Police issued an advisory urging all motorists in the city to update their contact details on the 'VAHAN' portal. This measure is regarding traffic e-challans and other critical updates directly on their personal devices.

Hyderabad City Police Commissioner VC Sajjanar stated that to facilitate seamless and prompt delivery of traffic violation e-challans and pre-notifications, the department is leveraging SMS, WhatsApp and e-mail services.

On Tuesday, Sajjanar issued a crucial advisory urging all motorists in the city to update their contact details on the 'VAHAN' portal. The Commissioner stated that to facilitate seamless and prompt delivery of traffic violation e-challans and pre-notifications, the department is leveraging SMS, WhatsApp, and e-mail services. To benefit from this system, vehicle owners must immediately register or update their current mobile numbers and e-mail IDs on the Central Government's official 'VAHAN' portal.

The Commissioner explained that in many instances, motorists miss traffic violation alerts due to outdated mobile numbers or incorrect details registered in the system. "This lack of communication often leads to delayed payments, resulting in an accumulation of heavy penalties. By keeping contact details updated, vehicle owners can stay informed in real-time and avoid the burden of unexpected fines," said Sajjanar.

Motorists can easily and quickly update their information by visiting the official portal at vahan.parivahan.gov.in or by scanning the official QR code issued by the Police Department.

Sajjanar highlighted a vital legal regulation, stating that as per government rules, any e-challan sent to the mobile number or e-mail ID registered on the 'VAHAN' portal will be officially 'deemed to be served' to the vehicle owner. Consequently, claims of not receiving the notification will not be legally tenable.

The Hyderabad Police has advised all vehicle owners not to be negligent and to update their details on the 'VAHAN' portal today. They appealed to the public to strictly adhere to traffic rules and act as responsible citizens.

Strong response to HMDA's Medipally land auction

HYDERABAD: Over 200 prospective bidders have shown interest in the auction of land at Medipally to be taken up by the Hyderabad Metropolitan Development Authority on June 24.

A pre-bid meeting regarding the proposed Medipally layout was held at the project site on June 16. Over 200 prospective bidders enthusiastically attended the meeting, making the event a success. Officials and representatives present at the meeting addressed the queries raised by the participants.

HMDA Deputy Collector Y Sudarshan explained the key features of the Medipally layout and answered various questions posed by the bidders. HMDA Chief Planning Officer A Ravinder Reddy clarified doubts regarding layout planning aspects and development proposals.

MSTC representative Siddharth explained the e-auction process, registration procedure, and guidelines for bidder participation.

HMDA Deputy Executive Engineer M Satyaprasad detailed the development works undertaken at the site and addressed technical queries from the participants. KPMG Representative Kalyan gave a PowerPoint presentation highlighting the unique features and key aspects of the Medipally layout.
