

Over 16,000 schools in AP have only one teacher: Sharmila

HANS NEWS SERVICE
AMARAVATI

APCC chief Y S Sharmila on Thursday alleged that more than 16,000 schools are functioning only with a single teacher in the state, observing that Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Chief Minister N Chandrababu Naidu “all talk and no action.”

Calling the single-teacher schools the true “report card” of the TDP-led NDA government in the southern state, Sharmila accused the NDA governments at the Centre and the state of talking “endlessly building castles in the air.” “16,357 schools in Andhra Pradesh are running with a single teacher! This is the true report card of the NDA governments at the Centre and in the State. While these governments talk endlessly building castles in the air; thousands of children are denied even the most basic requirement of a teacher in every classroom!” Sharmila said in a post on ‘X’.

Naidu claims to have a special relationship with the prime minister, she said, adding, if that is so, why has Andhra Pradesh not secured even the minimum support needed to ensure adequate teachers in our government schools? A government that cannot provide a teacher for every school has no moral right to speak about building the future, she said. Children need teachers, not headlines, said Sharmila, observing that Andhra Pradesh deserves justice, not excuses.

Meanwhile, there was no immediate reaction from the TDP.

YSRCP raises DSC row in Rajiya Sabha

AMARAVATI

THE YSRCP raised alleged irregularities in the Andhra Pradesh DSC-2025 teacher recruitment in the Rajiya Sabha on Thursday, with YSR Congress Parliamentary Party leader and Rajiya Sabha MP Y V Subba Reddy demanded resignation of IT and HRD minister Nara Lokesh and called for the anti-paper leak legislation to be expanded to cover all State-level recruitment examinations.

Participating in the debate on the Anti-Paper Leak Bill, Subba Reddy extended the YSRCP's support to the proposed legislation but argued that it should not be confined to examinations conducted by the UPSC, SSC and National Testing Agency

Subba Reddy demands Lokesh's resignation

(NTA). Alleging large-scale irregularities in the DSC-2025 recruitment process, he claimed that teacher posts were sold, the selection process was manipulated and the examination paper was leaked. “Just as the Union Education Minister resigned by accepting moral responsibility, Andhra Pradesh education minister Nara Lokesh should also step down over the DSC scam,” he demanded.

The YSRCP leader urged the Centre to bring examinations conducted by State agencies, including APPSC, DSC and APEAPCET, under the proposed law to strengthen the integrity of recruitment and restore public confidence in the examination system.

He also alleged that coaching-centre mafias were playing a major role in examination paper leaks and called for stringent action against them.

Raising broader concerns over education policy, Subba

Reddy said students studying under the CBSE syllabus enjoy a competitive advantage in NEET compared to those following State syllabi. He claimed that the previous YS Jagan Mohan Reddy government had introduced CBSE in government schools, modernised public education and improved infrastructure, but alleged that 5.5 lakh students have left government schools under the present administration.

He further alleged that while the previous YSRCP government established government medical colleges to make medical education affordable for poor students, the present NDA coalition government is moving towards privatisation, making medical education increasingly inaccessible to economically weaker sections.

AP forms panel for 2026 teachers' awards

Committee to be headed by HRD minister Lokesh; director of school education to serve as convener

HANS NEWS SERVICE
VIJAYAWADA

THE state government has constituted a state-level committee to select teachers for the prestigious State Teachers' Awards-2026. School education department secretary Kona Sasidhar issued GO Rt No 129 on Thursday, constituting the committee for the annual awards that recognise educators for their outstanding contribution to school education and academic excellence. According to the government order, the committee has been constituted following a proposal submitted by the director of school education and after careful examination by the government. The panel will oversee the selection process and finalise the list of awardees within the prescribed quota for the 2026 State Teachers' Awards. The committee will be chaired by minister for HRD Nara Lokesh. The secretary to the government, school education, will serve as the vice-chairman, while the director of school education will function as the convener. Other members include the director of AP State Council of Educational Research and Training and noted educationist and former MLC Ramu Surya Rao (RSR Master). The government has directed the director of school education to take the necessary follow-up action for conducting the selection process in accordance with the prescribed guidelines.

Passage of National Honour Bill in LS hailed

LANKA Dinakar, chairman of the Twenty Points Programme (Viksit Bharat-Swarna Andhra Pradesh) Implementation, welcomed the passage of the National Honour (Amendment) Bill, 2026 and the Public Examinations (Prevention of Unfair Means) Amendment Bill, 2026 in the Lok Sabha, calling them significant reforms under the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi.

He said the National Honour Bill, which seeks to promote the complete rendition of 'Vande Mataram' and extend it legal protection similar to the National Anthem, is a fitting tribute to its author, Bankim Chandra Chattopadhyay. He also praised the examination reform legislation for introducing stricter measures to curb malpractice and safeguard students' interests. Dinakar criticised the Congress, alleging it failed to engage constructively during the debate on the legislation. Referring to recent protests, he said those responsible for violence or unlawful acts should face legal action, emphasising that the Constitution guarantees equality before the law. He also dismissed allegations made by BJP leader Abhijit against the BJP as baseless and politically motivated.
