RAISING the acute drought conditions caused by the El Niño phenomenon in Anantapur district during Zero Hour in the Legislative Assembly, Raptadu MLA Parithala Sunitha urged the state government to immediately sanction ₹1 crore per mandal to tackle severe drinking water shortages.

Highlighting the crisis in her constituency, MLA Sunitha pointed out that groundwater levels have plummeted drastically, leaving borewells dry even at depths of 1,000 feet.

She noted that heavily populated regions like Anantapur Rural mandal, housing over 70,000 voters, are facing acute shortages. She requested deploying additional water tankers and releasing at least 30 percent capacity into local irrigation tanks through the Handri-Neeva project to replenish groundwater and supply drinking water for livestock.

She also requested expediting the completion of unfinished Rythu Bharosa Kendras and Secretariat buildings.

Speaking during a short discussion on the 'Super Six' welfare initiatives, MLA Sunitha commended Chief Minister Nara Chandrababu Naidu for implementing transformative schemes.

She highlighted that ₹52 crore reached 40,000 mothers in Raptadu under Talliki Vandanam, while ₹136 crore was distributed to 51,000 local farmers through Annadatha Sukhibhava. Furthermore, she appreciated the seamless doorstep delivery of pensions under NTR Bharosa.

Addressing issues arising from the Stree Shakti free bus travel initiative for women, MLA Sunitha noted that buses are severely overcrowded, with passenger loads reaching 60 to 80 per trip. She appealed to the Transport Department to immediately augment the RTC fleet with new buses and recruit additional drivers and conductors to relieve operational stress.

Govt schemes must be taken closer to people: MVS Prasad

REGIONAL Joint Director (RJD) of Information and Public Relations MVS Prasad stressed that government welfare and development schemes must be widely publicized to reach citizens effectively.

Inspecting the DIPRO headquarters near Rythu Bazaar on Thursday evening, he reviewed operational tasks with DIPRO Balakondaiah. Calling the Information Department a crucial pillar of public administration

Prasad urged staff members to work responsibly and efficiently to uphold the department's reputation. DPRO Prabhakar, PRO Suryanarayana Reddy, APRO Fakruddin, and other administrative staff attended the review to align on public outreach strategies.

Rajiv Gandhi is the architect of digital India: Cong

TIRUPATI

CONGRESS leaders led by its district president Gomedapera Chittibabu, held a commemorative event to mark 82nd birth anniversary of former Prime Minister Rajiv Gandhi, here on Thursday. Leaders and party workers paid floral tributes at Rajiv Gandhi statue. Speaking on the occasion, G Chittibabu praised Rajiv Gandhi as the architect of India's modern technological transformation. He highlighted Rajiv Gandhi's initiatives during 1984–1989 that promoted information technology, reduced import duties on computers, and expanded access to communication technologies in rural areas. He said these policies laid foundation for widespread use of computers and mobile phones and accelerated national development. Senior Congress leader Mangati Gopal Reddy recalled Rajiv Gandhi's role in supporting telecom expansion, including the work led by Sam Pitroda and the establishment of C-DOT, which extended telephone networks to villages.
