TIRUPATI

DISTRICT Collector Dr S Venkateswar has directed officials to make advance arrangements in coordination with all departments as Vinayaka Chavithi celebrations and Tirumala Srivari Brahmotsavams will be held simultaneously this year.

He held a review meeting at the Collectorate on Thursday in the presence of SP L Subba Rayudu, Joint Collector R Govinda Rao, Corporation Commissioner M Jaya Krishna and other officials. The Collector said Vinayaka Chavithi celebrations would begin on September 14, while Srivari Brahmotsavams would be held from September 15 to 23.

Chief Minister N Chandrababu Naidu's visit to Tirupati on September 15 evening would also require special attention to security, traffic management, police deployment and the movement of devotees and public. The Collector asked officials to prepare a special action plan for Garuda Seva, which is expected to draw a large number of devotees. The timings of Vinayaka idol immersions, procession routes, movement of devotees and traffic diversions should be coordinated in advance.

In view of the Brahmotsavams, he appealed to people in Tirupati to complete Vinayaka idol immersions on September 14, 16 and 20, corresponding to the first, third and seventh days of the celebrations. Vinayaka Sagar will be used as the main immersion point, while ponds at Daminedu, Thukivakam and Chennayagunta have been identified as alternative locations. Officials were asked to provide the required facilities at these places.

The Collector said the municipal department would have a key role in managing the Vinayaka Chavithi arrangements. He also directed officials to use the services of NCC personnel and volunteers for crowd management, guidance and emergency assistance. SP L Subba Rayudu said route maps for Vinayaka idol processions should be prepared in advance and special measures should be taken for traffic diversions, parking and crowd control. Drivers transporting the idols should undergo mandatory drunk-driving tests, and strict action should be taken against those found driving under the influence of alcohol.

TIRUMALA will host two Brahmotsavams this year due to Adhika Masam, prompting the TTD, district administration and police to draw up coordinated plans to manage the expected rush and ensure smooth conduct of the festivals. TTD Executive Officer M Ravichandra held a coordination meeting at Annamayya Bhavan in Tirumala on Thursday with Additional EO Ch Venkaiah Chowdary, district Collector Dr S Venkateswar and Superintendent of Police L Subba Rayudu, along with other officials.

Salakatta Brahmotsavams

TTD EO M Ravichandra, Additional EO Ch Venkaiah Chowdary, Collector S Venkateswar, SP L Subba Rayudu and CVSO KV Murali Krishna inspecting the Mada streets in Tirumala on Thursday will be held from September 15 to 23, while Navaratri Brahmotsavams will take place from October 12 to 20. Chief Minister N Chandrababu Naidu will present silk robes on behalf of the State government on September 15. Ankurarpana for Salakatta Brahmotsavams will be held on September 14 and Garuda Seva on September 19.

Ravichandra directed officials to make all necessary arrangements to ensure that devotees do not face inconvenience during the festivals. He asked them to complete all pending works by September 14 and ensure that there was no compromise on the quality of services provided to devotees. The EO stressed the need to prepare quality Annaprashadam and ensure that nutritious and tasty food is served. He also directed officials to strengthen security arrangements and maintain a buffer stock of 10 lakh laddus for the Brahmotsavams. Special arrangements will be made for Garuda Seva to facilitate darshan for a large number of devotees. APSRTC buses will be operated according to the expected rush, while services of Srivari Sevaks will also be utilised during the festivals.

Speaking to the media, Additional EO Venkaiah Chowdary said arrangements had been planned keeping in view the increasing number of devotees visiting Tirumala. The experience of Ratha Saptami, when around 3.75 lakh devotees and 15,000 vehicles visited the temple town, was also taken into consideration while preparing the plans. Special attention has been given to Garuda Seva, with separate plans to manage the rush in Tirumala and Tirupati.

The district administration is preparing arrangements for disaster and crisis management, including NDRF and emergency response teams. The police have also planned the deployment, accommodation and duty allocation of personnel. The TTD vigilance wing and CVSO will finalise security deployment based on previous experience.

After the meeting, Ravichandra and district officials inspected the four Mada streets around the Srivari temple and reviewed the arrangements on the ground. TTD JEOs Dr A Sarath and Prabha-la Gopinath and other officials attended the meeting.

Aster Narayanadri doctors save 2-day-old baby with complex emergency surgery

HANS NEWS SERVICE
TIRUPATI

DOCTORS at Aster Narayanadri Hospital successfully saved the life of a two-day-old newborn through a complex emergency abdominal surgery. The baby was admitted in a critical condition with severe abdominal swelling caused by an intestinal perforation and life-threatening infection.

Leading the surgery, renowned paediatric surgeon Dr Prasanna Venkatesh successfully repaired the intestinal perforation and controlled the spreading infection. Following the surgery, the newborn received round-the-clock critical care in NICU under the supervision of senior neonatologist Dr M Kiran Kumar Reddy.

The hospital management congratulated the paediatric surgery, NICU and Mother & Child teams for their coordinated efforts.

BLAs told to assist in timely delivery of notices

Municipal Commissioner M Jayakrishna speaking at a meeting in Tirupati on Thursday

CONSTITUENCY Voter Registration Officer and Municipal Commissioner M Jayakrishna appealed to booth-level officers (BLOs) and leaders of all political parties to cooperate with officials issuing notices during the Special Intensive Revision of electoral rolls.

Speaking at a meeting with representatives of national and State parties on Thursday, Commissioner Jayakrishna said notices are being issued to voters with 'no mapping' and other anomalies and requested booth-level agents and party representatives to assist in timely delivery and follow-up.

He clarified document requirements for verification as per Election Commission guidelines: voters born before 1987 must present one valid document; those born between 1987 and 2004 must present two, and those born after 2004 must present three.

Jayakrishna provided a detailed list of the 11 acceptable documents and asked party representatives to submit details of booth agents for the 84 newly created polling centres. He said voters, who are completely immobile, hospitalised, or differently-abled will be handled virtually by the area team, while all other voters, who have received notices, must attend physical verification on the date and time shown on the notice. He also shared statistics on notices already distributed. Additional Commissioner Sarada Devi, Tahsildar Suresh Babu, Deputy Election Officer Sudhakar Naik, and representatives of all political parties were present.
