A delegation of Ministers led by Deputy Chief Minister Bhatti Vikramarka met Governor Shiv Pratap Shukla at Lok Bhavan on Wednesday and submitted a complaint over the alleged "purification" ritual carried out by BRS leaders at Erravalli.

The ministers apprised the Governor of the conduct of BRS MLAs and MLCs on the first day of the Assembly session, particularly the alleged objectionable remarks directed at Speaker Gaddam Prasad Kumar.

Deputy Chief Minister Bhatti, Ministers Duddilla Sridhar Babu, Seethakka, Adluri Laxman, Ponnamp Prabhakar and Mohammed Azharuddin were among those who met the Governor.

Minister Adluri Laxman

A delegation of Ministers led by Deputy Chief Minister Mallu Bhatti Vikramarka submit a complaint to Governor Shiv Pratap Shukla at Lok Bhavan on Wednesday over the alleged "purification" ritual carried out by BRS leaders at Erravalli accused the BRS of displaying an "arrogant and feudal attitude" and alleged that BRS MLCs had verbally abused the Speaker and his mother.

He alleged that the reported "purification" of the road near KCR's farmhouse, after Dalits staged a protest by playing traditional drums, reflected an anti-

Dalit mindset.

"We complained to the Governor about the practice of untouchability exhibited by KCR," Laxman said. He questioned whether the reported purification ritual was carried out at the direction of former Chief Minister K Chandrashekar Rao (KCR). "Is the humiliation of Dalits happening at KCR's behest? If KCR did not order it, why is he remaining silent?" he asked, demanding a clarification from the BRS chief.

Laxman said the Assembly Speaker had responded to a complaint lodged by BRS women MLAs, ordered an inquiry and assured that action would be taken against those found responsible. He asserted that there was no place for untouchability or caste discrimination in a people's government and said such incidents would not be tolerated.

The minister said the delegation had specifically approached the Governor to bring the alleged conduct of BRS leaders to his notice.

BHARAT Rashtra Samithi (BRS) leaders met Governor Shiv Pratap Shukla on Wednesday to bring to his attention recent state incidents, including alleged insults to female legislators, death threats directed at party chief K Chandrashekar Rao, and the suspension of two party MLCs, seeking his direct intervention as constitutional head.

Speaking to reporters after the meeting, BRS Working President KT Rama Rao stated that the delegation briefed the Governor on prevailing political conditions in Telangana. Expressing outrage over police intercepting leaders on main roads while heading towards the Assembly, he criticized law enforcement for behaving inappropriately towards female legislators, adding that video footage of police aggression against former Minister Sabitha Indira Reddy was presented to the Governor.

KTR stated that the delegation explained how police created a Dushhasana parvam by pulling the sari of MLA Sunitha Lakshma Reddy. Wearing a black shirt in protest, he emphasized that BRS leaders maintain deep respect for the Speaker while noting that citizens and public representatives alike faced severe humiliation. The Governor was informed that Congress cadres were allegedly urged to gather at the residence of former Chief Minister K

BRS Working President KT Rama Rao on Wednesday said that the photos released by the Congress government were fake images created using Artificial Intelligence (AI) and warned of legal action.

The BRS leader alleged that the Congress party and its affiliated social media handles were using AI-generated fake photos and videos to spread false propaganda against BRS leaders amidst the Assembly session.

KTR warned that they were lodging a complaint with the cyber crime police regarding these fake photos and that strict legal action would be taken against the individuals, who created and circulated them, as well as the media organisations that intentionally broadcasted them. He made it clear that BRS would not tolerate attempts to mislead the public by passing off AI-generated fake photos and videos as genuine.

KTR said that there was an attempt to divert attention from the real issues by using fake images and fabricated narratives to claim that attacks took place when, in reality, no such attacks occurred. "The Congress party is behaving like the thief who shouts 'thief, thief' to deflect blame," he criticised.

Chandrashekar Rao to assault him.

According to KTR, the Governor assured the delegation that an inquiry would be conducted into issues raised outside the Assembly, while examining matters related to legislative proceedings.

Relying on this assurance, the opposition expects constitutional intervention to halt ongoing aggression. The BRS delegation clarified that members faced attacks simply for demanding the fulfillment of public promises and seeking justice. Formal complaints have already been lodged regarding AI-generated images and videos circulated by political opponents, with the party warning of strict legal action against those utilizing fabricated material to file false charges.

KTR added that if state authorities fail to deliver justice, BRS leaders will approach the National Commission for Women at the national level to lodge formal complaints, ensuring accountability for police misconduct and political harassment targeting female representatives.

Feudal ideology has no place in Telangana, says Bhatti Vikramarka

DEPUTY Chief Minister Mallu Bhatti Vikramarka made it clear that Telangana society would not tolerate feudal and discriminatory ideology under any circumstances. Strongly condemning the manner in which BRS leadership behaved in the Legislative Assembly in a way that insulted the Speaker, he said it was painful that the same mindset continued to be displayed afterwards, severely criticizing BRS leaders conduct in the House.

Bhatti Vikramarka said he had expressed deep anguish on Tuesday over inappropriate remarks made against the Speaker, adding it was even more distressing that within 24 hours posts emerged showing BRS leaders and cadres carrying out a purification ritual on roads walked by Dalits.

He emphasized this was not merely an insult to Dalits, but an act hurting the self-respect of entire Telangana society.

Bhatti Vikramarka noted national developments were worrying, stressing that under the Constitution framed by BR Ambedkar everyone remains equal regarding fundamental rights. He recalled that about a month ago, after Congress president Mallikarjun Kharge attended a meeting in Uttarakhand, BJP leaders purified the same ground, criticizing the BJP for failing to condemn the act despite Kharge leading a party central to India freedom struggle.

He alleged such actions reflected a farmhouse feudal mindset, questioning whether a party harboring such ideology had ruled Telangana for ten years. Bhatti Vikramarka expressed concern over whether the country was moving towards medieval conditions.

Addressing the media at the Assembly media point on Wednesday, Goud said the Congress wished KCR a long and healthy life. He noted that as Leader of the Opposition, KCR was being provided security by the government second only to that of the Chief Minister.

Goud said it was inappropriate to blame the Congress for issues concerning KCR's personal or family matters and alleged that KCR had rarely attended Assembly proceedings.

Goud condemned the reported performance of 'Pinda

Reddy as examples.

He recalled that the Congress government had facilitated medical treatment for Vajpayee when he was unwell and supported Jaipal Reddy during his medical treatment. He also said that after Congress came to power in Telangana, KCR was shifted to a hospital through a "Green Channel" after he reportedly suffered a fall at his residence.

Goud said it was inappropriate to blame the Congress for issues concerning KCR's personal or family matters and alleged that KCR had rarely attended Assembly proceedings.

Goud condemned the reported performance of 'Pinda

Pradanam' for a sitting Chief Minister by BRS, calling such political practices inappropriate and unhealthy for democratic discourse.

The TPCC president demanded an explanation from BRS leader T Harish Rao over allegations that he commissioned occult rituals allegedly aimed at affecting KCR's health.

Referring to remarks attributed to K. Kavitha in a video clip, Goud said the allegations required clarification. He also termed comments made by BRS leader Tata Madhu objectionable.

Goud said the Congress had a history of empowering Dalits by appointing members of the community to the country's highest constitutional positions. He urged political parties to maintain dignity and a humanitarian approach in public life.

THE Telangana Legislative Council Ethics Committee on Wednesday strongly condemned alleged remarks made by MLCs Thatha Madhu and Naveen Kumar Reddy against Legislative Assembly Speaker Gaddam Prasad Kumar, terming them an unforgivable offence.

The meeting was chaired by Council Chairman Gutta Sukhender Reddy alongside MLC Mahesh Kumar Goud, with MLCs Nellikanti Satyam and Deshapathi Srinivas in attendance. During deliberations, Mahesh Kumar Goud presented video footage of the alleged remarks before committee members.

A majority of members concurred that the comments were unacceptable and severely undermined legislative dignity and decorum. However, Deshapathi Srinivas raised objections during discussions, prompting the committee to defer a final decision until its next meeting following further deliberation.

The committee also discussed alleged rude behaviour by police personnel towards women MLAs during an incident near the Assembly. Members expressed serious concern over law enforcement conduct towards elected representatives, debating possible courses of action against errant officers. Following detailed deliberations, the committee decided to seek expert legal advice before proceeding further.

Panel members agreed that the precise legal position would be thoroughly examined and an appropriate course of action determined based on the formal opinion received.
