BRS alleges irregularities in allotment of Indiramma housing

To stage protest at district Collectorate today

BRS Rajya Sabha member Vaddiraju Ravichandra on Wednesday called upon party cadres to participate in large numbers in a protest against alleged irregularities in the allotment of Indiramma houses to the poor at the district Collectorate on Thursday.

The Left parties will also join the protest programme.

Addressing a preparatory meeting at Telangana Bhavan here on Wednesday, Ravichandra alleged that the Congress government was discriminating against eligible poor families in the allocation of houses. He appealed to BRS workers and leaders to make the protest scheduled for October 22 a success. The meeting was attended by MLC Tata Madhusudan, former MLA Sandra Venkata Veeraiyah, former Zilla Parishad chairman Lingala Kamal Raj and other party leaders.

Ravichandra welcomed the Left parties' decision to join the protest, stating that their participation would help highlight the alleged injustice being done to eligible beneficiaries. He said he would discuss the issue with BRS working president KT Rama Rao and pursue legal action seeking the repeal of Government Order 33, which, he alleged, had facilitated the formation of Indiramma housing committees dominated by Congress leaders.

The Rajya Sabha MP alleged that the committees were being used to accommodate Congress leaders and prevent them from migrating to the BRS. He questioned the government's decision to abandon the lottery-based allotment system, claiming that the present approach had created scope for arbitrary decisions and deprived deserving poor families of housing benefits.

Recalling the previous BRS government's housing programme under former chief minister K Chandrashekar Rao, Ravichandra said double-bedroom houses had been constructed and allotted through a lottery system, which, according to him, ensured a fairer process irrespective of political affiliations.

He alleged that the present government was resorting to police pressure to deter Congress leaders and workers who were considering joining the BRS amid dissatisfaction with the administration. He also criticised the three ministers representing the district, accusing them of failing to adequately address the concerns of poor families. Ravichandra urged BRS cadres to gather at the Khammam Collectorate with party flags and participate in the protest to demand fair allotment of houses to eligible beneficiaries and the cancellation of the Indiramma housing committees.

Party leaders Pagadala Nagaraju, Bellam Venu, Khmar and others were present at the preparatory meeting.

On the occasion of Police Commemoration Day, the SP, Additional SP MD Riyaz ul Haq, DSP Nallapu Lingayya, other police officials and family members of martyrs paid floral tributes at the martyrs' memorial at the district police parade grounds on Wednesday.

Addressing the gathering, the SP said the courage and sacrifices of police personnel who lost their lives fighting anti-social forces in the line of duty would continue to in-

Police personnel served with dedication, protecting citizens and addressing social problems. RAJYA Sabha member and Munnuru Kapu community state honorary president Vaddiraju Ravichandra has urged the district administration to release the pending funds for the construction of a Munnuru Kapu community function hall and assured additional financial assistance if required.

A delegation of Munnuru Kapu community leaders, led by district president Sheelamsetti Veerabhadram, met Ravichandra at his residence on Wednesday and discussed key issues concerning the community. Responding to their appeal, Ravichandra spoke to District Collector Divakar TS and requested the immediate release of Rs 50 lakh sanctioned from Members of Parliament Local Area Development (MPLAD) funds for the function hall project. The Collector responded positively and agreed to facilitate the release of the funds, according to the community representatives.

Ravichandra directed the leaders to complete the construction within six months. He also assured them that he would provide additional financial assistance if the sanctioned funds proved insufficient to complete the project. The function hall is expected to provide a dedicated venue for community meetings and social activities.

During the meeting, the leaders also decided to convene a meeting of the newly constituted district executive committee at the Munnuru Kapu hostel on October 28.

They invited Ravichandra, along with the state president and Khammam district in-charge, to attend the meeting as chief guests.

The community leaders further resolved to organise the Munnuru Kapu Vana-samaradhana, an annual community gathering, on November 15 during the Karthika Masam. As part of the preparations, they inspected Cherukuri's mango orchard near Kothagudem, close to Khammam city, and selected the venue for the event.

Govt urged to release water to tail-end of Jurala project

HANS NEWS SERVICE
WANAPARTHY

TELANGANA Rythanga Samithi has demanded that the government release irrigation water to the tail-end areas of the Jurala project and provide compensation of Rs 30,000 per acre for the crops that have withered.

On Wednesday, Samithi's state president Jakkula Venkatayya visited the paddy fields in Ramannapeta, Pebbair mandal, where hundreds of acres of crops have dried up due to a lack of water reaching the tail-end of the 18th distributary of the Jurala Left Canal.

Jakkula Venkatayya inspected the damaged crops and noted that the production cost per acre ranges from Rs 35,000, to Rs 40,000, and that farmers are deeply distressed as they watch their crops wither away.

He explained that the paddy crops in the Jurala command area have dried up across hundreds of acres due to a severe water shortage.

They noted that while irrigation water is currently being released to the Jurala project's command area according to a rotational schedule, the affected farmers are requesting an extension of the release period by another two days.
