PREPARATIONS are progressing in full swing at the NTR Auditorium on the JNTU campus in Anantapur as the district administration prepares to host the prestigious regional conference of the 'CII Partnership Summit - 2026' on October 23.

Organized jointly by the Government of Andhra Pradesh and the Andhra Pradesh Economic Development Board (AP EDB), the conference aims to spur entrepreneurship and showcase the state's industrial capabilities.

The Anantapur summit forms part of a statewide series of regional conferences held from October 7 to 26 across Visakhapatnam, Kakinada, Guntur, Anantapur, and Tirupati. The Anantapur event will focus heavily on core sectors including aerospace, defense, automotive, natural farming, horticulture, food processing, and renewable energy.

In a major procedural change, key investment Memorandums of Understanding (MoUs) will be signed directly during the regional conference to accelerate industrial partnerships. The agenda on October 23 begins at 10:30 AM with an 'AP Showcase & MSME Exhibition', followed by the inaugural session at 11:15 AM. MoUs will be signed at 12:30 PM, leading into project inaugurations and foundation-stone laying ceremonies at 1:00 PM.

District administrative officials are continuously inspecting arrangements across the NTR Auditorium, the Ratan Tata Innovation Hub, and the JNTU Guest House to ensure smooth execution. Prominent investors, corporate leaders, and state policymakers are set to attend the high-profile gathering, which promises to position Rayalaseema as a key destination for industrial innovation, sustainable agriculture, and advanced technological manufacturing.

Police action aims to scare YSRCP nominees: MLA Veerupakshi

Alur constituency YSRCP MLA Virupakshi placed under house arrest

ALUR YSRCP MLA Veerupakshi expressed strong indignation on Wednesday after police authorities placed him under house arrest at his residence without serving any prior notice.

Terming the police action unfortunate, the MLA questioned the restrictions imposed on an elected representative at a crucial junction when the nomination process for the Mandal Parishad Territorial Constituency (MPTC) and Zilla Parishad Territorial Constituency (ZPTC) elections was underway.

Speaking to The Hans India, Veerupakshi alleged that placing key opposition leaders under house arrest was intended to instill fear among YSR Congress Party (YSRCP) candidates and discourage them from reaching nomination centers to submit their papers.

He stated that he immediately reported the police highhandedness to the Kurnool District Collector and Superintendent of Police over the phone.

According to the MLA, both top district officials assured him that all YSRCP candidates would be provided full security and a fair opportunity to complete their nomination filings.

Reaffirming his commitment to the party cadre, Veerupakshi promised to stand resolutely behind every YSRCP aspirant and extend complete assistance during the electoral process. He urged party workers and candidates to remain confident, visit designated nomination centers, and exercise their democratic right by submitting their papers without fear.

The MLA emphasized that district authorities must maintain a neutral, conducive, and fair atmosphere, ensuring that every political party is permitted to participate freely in the upcoming local body elections.

MLA Sunitha oversees MPTC, ZPTC nomination process

Hans News Service
Anantapur

HIGH enthusiasm marked the filing of MPTC and ZPTC nominations in Raptadu constituency, with MLA Paritala Sunitha personally overseeing proceedings.

Visiting mandal headquarters in Chennekothapalli and Ramagiri, she guided TDP candidates on filing paperwork legally and fearlessly.

Emphasizing that elections are the cornerstone of democracy, Sunitha directed local leaders to maintain peace and prevent untoward incidents.

Expressing strong confidence in a public mandate, the MLA asserted that TDP would secure a complete clean sweep across Raptadu, defeating all opposition attempts.

Police Commemoration Day observed

Hans News Service
Anantapur

ANANTAPUR Range IGP Dr Shemushi and District SP PJagadeesh led solemn Police Commemoration Day tributes at the District Police Headquarters on Wednesday.

Honoring the 1959 Ladakh martyrs, officials urged personnel to rededicate themselves to public service. SP Jagadeesh highlighted ongoing safety measures, including 'Operation Night Safety', the 'Shakti' app, anti-narcotics drives, and advanced technological surveillance like CCTV networks and cyber cells. Emphasizing community policing, the leadership pledged unwavering support to martyrs' families and called for close public cooperation to maintain law, order, and regional development.

SP assures department's firm support to martyrs' families

Puttaparthi

DESCRIBING the services and sacrifices of police personnel as invaluable to society, dignitaries and police officials gathered at the District Police Office in Puttaparthi on Wednesday to observe Police Commemoration Day with deep solemnity.

The event, chaired by Sri Sathya Sai District Superintendent of Police S Satish Kumar, IPS, was attended by District Collector A Shyam Prasad, IAS, Additional District Judge (Hindupur) Venkateswara Rao, Junior Civil Judge (Puttaparthi) Mujeeb Paspala, and Joint Collector Maurya Bharadwaj.

Parade Commander Uma Maheshwar Reddy presented a ceremonial salute, after which officials laid floral wreaths at the Police Martyrs' Memorial and observed a two-minute silence.

Addressing the gathering, Additional District Judge Venkateswara Rao stated that the police uniform symbolizes dedication and discipline, stressing society's duty to support martyrs' families. District SP Satish Kumar recalled the historical 1959 Ladakh Hot Springs confrontation where ten CRPF personnel sacrificed their lives.

He announced that 'Police Commemoration Week' will be observed from October 21 to 31, featuring various public awareness programs.

He reaffirmed that the department stands firmly by the bereaved families through the Police Welfare Fund.

District Collector Shyam Prasad praised the police force as the backbone of internal security, highlighting their round-the-clock service during festivals.

He commended the district police for successfully reducing road accidents, drug trafficking, and offenses against women compared to the previous year. Subsequently, financial assistance cheques were distributed to the families of fallen officers.
