YSRCP accuses govt of misusing police

NARESH NANDAM
ONGOLE

YSRCP Prakasam district president and Darsi MLA Dr Buchepalli Siva Prasad Reddy accused the coalition government of using police and officials to stop opposition candidates from contesting the local body elections. He held a press conference at party office in Ongole on Wednesday and blamed

Chief Minister N Chandrababu Naidu and the NDA alliance for violence and bias.

Siva Prasad Reddy alleged that BCs reservations in Darsi, Kandukur and Addanki were changed to Open Category overnight. He said this was done only to help coalition candidates. He also said YSRCP candidates were not getting native certificates and police NOCs.

Expenditure limits fixed to ensure level playing field

- Election Expenditure Observer Sunil says that candidates must open a separate bank account for election-related expenditure at the time of filing nominations

DEEKSHITULA
KAKINADA

Election Expenditure Observer Garud Sanket Sunil

THE State Election Commission has prescribed expenditure limits for candidates contesting local body elections to curb the influence of money and muscle power and ensure a level playing field for all contestants, Kakinada District Election Expenditure Observer Garud Sanket Sunil said.

Addressing a training programme for expenditure observers, Flying Squad Teams (FSTs) and Static Surveillance Teams (SSTs) at the Collectorate on Wednesday, he stressed the need for strict monitoring of election related expenditure to ensure transparency and impartiality in the electoral process. He directed the teams to coordinate with one another and ensure that candidates strictly adhere to the prescribed expenditure limits and election rules. Explaining the limits for various posts, Sunil said ZPTC candidates could spend up to Rs 8 lakh and MPCTC candidates up to Rs 4 lakh. The expenditure limit for sarpanch candidates was fixed at Rs 4 lakh in major gram panchayats and Rs 2.50 lakh in minor gram panchayats. Ward member candidates could spend up to Rs 1 lakh in major gram panchayats and Rs 60,000 in minor gram panchayats. For urban local body elections, the expenditure limit was Rs 20 lakh for municipal chairperson candidates, Rs 10 lakh for Nagar panchayat chairperson candidates and Rs 5 lakh for Nagar panchayat ward member candidates.

He said candidates must open a separate bank account for election-related expenditure at the time of filing nominations. All expenses towards campaigning, vehicles, publicity material, rallies and public meetings should be routed through the account in accordance with the rules. Candidates must maintain a daily expenditure register from the date of notification until the declaration of results and preserve all bills, vouchers and receipts for verification.

They must also submit a complete election expenditure statement to the Returning Officer within the prescribed period after the results are announced. The expenditure observer warned that the distribution of cash, liquor, gifts or other articles to influence voters would not be tolerated. SST members were instructed to remain vigilant at check-posts and detect the illegal transportation of cash, liquor and gifts. Flying squads were directed to respond promptly to complaints, conduct inspections and initiate necessary action. He said prior permission was mandatory for election rallies, processions, vehicle campaigns, use of loudspeakers, public meetings, flex banners and other campaign activities. Candidates should obtain the required clearances through the single-window system under the supervision of the Returning Officer and properly account for the expenditure incurred on approved events, including rallies taken out during the nomination process.

District Auditor Suresh Babu explained various aspects of expenditure monitoring, maintenance of records, assessment of campaign expenses, inspection procedures and enforcement of election regulations. Members of the FSTs, SSTs, Model Code of Conduct teams and expenditure monitoring teams attended the training programme.

Tributes paid to police martyrs

Collector T Nishanthi addressing a gathering on the occasion of Police Commemoration Day in Paderu on Wednesday

ALLURI Sitarama Raju district Collector T Nishanthi paid tributes to police personnel, who laid down their lives in the line of duty, on the occasion of Police Commemoration Day at CAH School in Talarsig on Wednesday. The Collector received the guard of honour and later laid floral tributes at the martyrs' memorial in remembrance of the police personnel.

District Superintendent of Police Amit Bardar, Sub-Collector Kanala Chiranjeevi Naga Venkata Sahith and Additional

SP Sruthi participated in the programme and paid homage to the martyrs. On the occasion, financial assistance was extended to the families of 15 police martyrs from the district, who lost their lives while discharging their duties. Collector Nishanthi and police officials interacted with the bereaved family members and enquired about their welfare. The officials said the sacrifices made by police personnel in the service of the nation and in protecting public safety would always be remembered. Their courage, dedication and commitment to duty would continue to inspire society, they added.

Markapur police observe Martyrs Day

NARESH NANDAM
MARKAPUR

THE police held Martyrs Commemoration Day at Markapur district police office on Wednesday, for the first time since Markapur became a separate district. District SP Pankaj Kumar Meena led the event, while district Collector M Vijaya Suneetha attended as the chief guest and paid tributes to the martyrs. Police staff gave a guard of honour, and a memorial parade was held.

The day is observed every year on October 21, remembering the CRPF personnel, who died in an attack by Chinese troops at Hot Springs in Ladakh in 1959.

Collector Vijaya Suneetha said police work carries great responsibility. She said police officers stay away from their families and protect people in all weather conditions. She said the martyrs' sacrifice will always be remembered. SP Pankaj Kumar Meena said discipline, physical strength, and mental courage are vital in police service. He asked every police officer to work for public safety in the martyrs' spirit.

The Collector and the SP interacted with Nandi Chiranjeevamma, wife of martyr Nandi Yesaiah from Pedda Nallakaluvu village in Cumbam mandal. He died in a Naxalite attack in Adilabad district. OSD Navajyothi Mishra, DSP Nimmagadda Narayana and other officers took part in the programme.

Prakasam police pay homage to martyrs

ONGOLE

Prakasam Collector P Raja Babu, SP V Harshavardhan Raju and others paying tributes to martyred police in Ongole on Wednesday

PRAKASAM district Collector P Raja Babu and Superintendent of Police V Harshavardhan Raju paid floral tributes at the martyrs' memorial on Wednesday, observing Police Martyrs Commemoration Day at district police office in Ongole. They also held a memorial parade at the parade ground.

Speaking on the occasion, Collector Raja Babu said police work is a great service that builds people's trust. He said 154 police personnel gave their lives on duty across the country this year. He added that crime has come down in the district over the past year. He also praised progress in road safety and the protection of women. He asked the police to stay alert to cybercrimes and learn modern technology. SP Harshavardhan Raju said that ten personnel died in a clash with Chinese troops at Hot Springs in Ladakh on October 21, 1959. They observe this day in their memory. He said the Government of India has recently declared October 21 as National Police Day. He also said that 12 police personnel from Prakasam district have lost their lives on duty since last September. He offered deep condolences to their families.

Additional SP N Yugandhar Babu read out the names of the 154 martyrs. The Collector gave gifts to the martyrs' families and flagged off a rally. Deputy Transport Commissioner R Susela, other senior officers and family members took part.
