VISAKHAPATNAM

CITY Police Commissioner Shankhabrata Bagchi said that 'Police Commemoration Day' is not just an occasion to honour the sacrifices of police personnel, who laid down their lives in the line of duty, but also a reminder of the responsibility to support their bereaved families.

Paying tributes to police martyrs at the Police Martyrs' Memorial Stupa at Beach Road on Wednesday, Shankhabrata Bagchi mentioned that police personnel continued to protect society while confronting dangerous challenges, including terrorism and violent crimes. He stated that more than 35,000 police personnel have sacrificed their lives for the country's security since 1961.

Acknowledging that the loss suffered by the families of martyrs could never be compensated, he assured them of continued support from the government and the police department through various welfare measures.

Highlighting the evolving nature of crime, the CP stressed that police personnel must adopt advanced technologies to tackle emerging threats such as cybercrime, drug trafficking and financial fraud. He opined that initiatives such as friendly-policing, cybercrime prevention measures, Shakti App for women's safety and programmes for senior citizen protection are strengthening public trust in the city.

District Collector M Abhishikh Kishore, Visakhapatnam Port Authority Chairperson JS Bindra and Navy officials attended the commemorative programme.

Meanwhile, Police Com-

moration Day was observed at CAH School premises in Paderu, Alluri Sitarama Raju district, where a parade was organised in honour of police martyrs.

District Collector T Nishanthi lauded the police for their commendable services in maintaining law and order.

She said the sacrifices of police martyrs continued to inspire both the police force and society, assuring that the government and the department would stand by their families. District Superintendent of Police Amit Bardar called upon police officers and personnel to draw inspiration from the martyrs and discharge their duties with honesty, discipline and dedication while providing better services to the public.

Financial assistance cheques were distributed to the families of police martyrs. Additional SP (Administration) Y. Shruti, other police officers and Armed Reserve Police personnel participated in the programme.

SCoRGM conducts comprehensive safety review meeting

SANDEEP Mathur, General Manager of the South Coast Railway (SCoR), convened a safety review meeting on Wednesday with principal heads of departments and DRMs of four divisions to evaluate and enhance operational protocols across the zone.

The high-level meeting primarily focused on strengthening railway safety measures, implementing effective crowd management strategies, and accelerating improvements in the Rail Madad complaint redressal system to ensure a secure and seamless passenger experience.

Addressing the officials, Sandeep Mathur reviewed the current crowd management action plans during the festival rushes, directing staff to ensure adequate deployments and proactive passenger facilitation.

The General Manager highlighted the need for prompt and effective resolution of passenger grievances through the Rail Madad portal.

Also, Sandeep Mathur felicitated four frontline staff, who demonstrated exceptional alertness and dedication to duty, with 'Employee of the Month' safety awards for September.

The awardees included T Suresh - loco pilot/Goods, Vijayawada Division, K Mary - tech-1/C&W, Guntur Division, SK Mukthiyar - pointsman, Guntakal Division and T Ram Prasad - track maintainer-I, Visakhapatnam Division.

The General Manager commended the awardees for their exemplary presence of mind and outstanding commitment to railway safety, stating that their dedication serves as an inspiration to the entire workforce.

VISAKHAPATNAM

THE 11th edition of Rasagjna National Multilingual Theatre Festival - 2026 will be held at Kalabharathi Auditorium starting from Thursday (October 22).

'Repatisatruvu' (Telugu drama), 'Death Calls' (English/Hindi drama), 'Waiting for Godot' (Malayalam playlet), 'Shikandi' (Telugu playlet), 'Amey Katha'

(Telugu playlet), 'Raj Rakto' (Hindi/Bengali playlet) and 'Mantra' (Kannada drama) will be presented during the four-day multilingual theatre festival.

RasagjnaSamskruthika-SevaSamstha founder-president and guest faculty of Andhra University Vemali Trinadha Rao said the festival aims to promote theatre arts and entertain theatre art admirers through a series of dramas and playlets in various languages.

City Police Commissioner Shankhabrata Bagchi, Trinadha Rao, and Kalabharathi president MSN Raju among others, attended the festival's poster launch in Visakhapatnam.

The festival is organised in association with the Ministry of Culture, Government of India, and the Andhra Pradesh Department of Language and Culture.

Rail nursery promotes a healthier environment

Divisional Railway Manager of Visakhapatnam Division Lalit Bohra and president of South Coast Railway Women's Welfare Organisation Jyotsna Bohra visiting rail nursery in Visakhapatnam on Wednesday

HANS NEWS SERVICE
VISAKHAPATNAM

LALIT Bohra, Divisional Railway Manager of Visakhapatnam Division, and Jyotsna Bohra, president, South Coast Railway Women's Welfare Organisation (SCoRWVO), visited the dedicated rail nursery at Railway Colony, Visakhapatnam on Wednesday.

The dedicated rail nursery was established to enhance greenery and promote a healthy, clean and eco-friendly environment across railway premises. The nursery supplies a variety of saplings for plantation in railway colonies and office premises, supporting the development of green spaces and improving the overall environment.

The initiative reflects Visakhapatnam Division's commitment to environmental sustainability and promoting plantation activities across railway establishments. The availability of different sapling varieties will facilitate plantation and encourage maintenance of greener surroundings for railway employees and their families. The initiative underscores the importance of environmental conservation and collective efforts towards building a greener and healthier railway ecosystem.

33rd edition of SIMBEX-2026 commences in Visakhapatnam

HANS NEWS SERVICE
VISAKHAPATNAM

THE 33rd edition of the Singapore-India Maritime Bilateral Exercise (SIMBEX-2026), scheduled till October 26, commenced in Visakhapatnam.

Republic of Singapore Navy (RSN) Ship RSG Supreme arrived in Visakhapatnam on Wednesday to participate in the exercise.

The opening ceremony of 'SIMBEX-2026' was jointly hosted onboard INS Nilgiri and INS Kamorta. The ceremony was attended by the Chief Staff Officer (Operations) of the Eastern Naval Command, the Fleet Commander of the RSN and other senior officers from the Indian Navy and the Republic of Singapore Navy.

Commencing in 1994 as Exercise Lion King, SIMBEX has evolved into a significant bilateral maritime engagement between the Indian Navy (IN) and the RSN.

Over the years, the exercise has expanded in scope and complexity, strengthening professional ties, mutual understanding and operational interoperability between the two Navies.

The exercise will be carried out in two phases. The harbour phase, from October 21 to 23, includes professional interactions, subject matter expert exchanges (SMEEs), cross-deck visits, sporting engagements and planning conferences.

The sea phase, scheduled from October 24 to 26 in the Bay of Bengal, will feature maritime operations and tactical exercises, including Anti-Submarine Warfare (ASW), anti-surface and anti-air warfare drills, seamanship evolutions and tactical manoeuvres.

SIMBEX-2026 highlights the longstanding maritime partnership between India and Singapore and their shared commitment to enhancing interoperability, addressing common maritime security challenges, and promoting peace and stability in the Indo-Pacific.
