WARANGAL West MLA Naini Rajender Reddy has called on Congress leaders and workers to work collectively to ensure the victory of the party's official candidate, RamreddySarvottam Reddy, in the Warangal-Khammam-Nalgonda Graduates' MLC elections.

Speaking at a preparatory meeting held at the Hanu-makonda District Congress Committee (DCC) office on Thursday, Naini stressed the need to expedite the identification and registration of eligible graduates through Form-18.

He directed division presidents in the Warangal West constituency to identify graduates in their respective areas and help them complete the voter registration process. He also urged party workers to raise awareness among educated and un-employed graduates about registration procedures and explain the state government's initiatives to provide employment opportunities and promote their welfare.

Naini emphasised coordinated efforts at every stage, from voter registration to campaigning, and called for a decisive victory for the Congress candidate.

Hanumakonda DCC president InagalaVenkatram Reddy said election preparations would be coordinated at division and mandal levels, in line with decisions taken at the joint Warangal district meeting. He urged party cadres to intensify registration efforts.

Election conveners, PCC general secretaries, former corporators and other senior party leaders attended the meeting.

BJP sees 'saffron tsunami' in Telangana: Dharmapuri

Nizamabad MP rules out alliances, alleges secret Congress-BRS understanding and predicts BJP victory in Assembly polls

HANS NEWS SERVICE
NIZAMABAD

BJP MP Dharmapuri Arvind has asserted that his party is working actively in Telangana and will sweep the 2028 Assembly elections, forming the government independently. Addressing a press conference in Nizamabad, he dismissed speculation that the BJP had gone quiet in the state.

Arvind alleged that the Congress and BRS were exploring a secret political understanding, claiming that Chief Minister A. Revanth Reddy was the main obstacle to a possible alliance. He also alleged dissatisfaction within the Congress high command over the Chief Minister. Targeting the previous BRS government, Arvind accused its leaders of large-scale corruption linked to the Kaleshwaram Lift Irrigation Project. He further criticised BRS's social media campaigns and mocked working president K.T. Rama Rao over his beard, saying it would not help him become Chief Minister.

Arvind ruled out electoral alliances, insisting that the BJP would contest alone. He also predicted that internal conflicts would eventually weaken the ruling Congress in Telangana.

Census training focuses on efficient field operations

TAHSILDARS, MPDOs AND MUNICIPAL COMMISSIONERS ATTEND DISTRICT-LEVEL PROGRAMME

HANS NEWS SERVICE
KUMURAMBHEEMASIFABAD

DISTRICT Additional Collector (Local Bodies) YuvrajMarmat has emphasised the crucial role of Charge Officers in ensuring the successful conduct of census operations.

He was speaking at a training programme for Tahsildars, MandalParishad Development Officers (MPDOs) and Municipal Commissioners at the Integrated District Collectorate complex on Thursday. Kagaznagar Sub-Collector HarshaChoudhary also attended the programme. Marmat said Tahsildars, MPDOs and Municipal Commissioners would serve as Charge Officers and must thoroughly understand all aspects of the census. He urged them to ensure smooth and systematic implementation of the process. He explained that the census, conducted once every decade, would take place in two phases: house listing and housing census, followed by population enumeration. He advised officials to pay attention to trainers' instructions and record important points.

Chief Planning Officer Guruviah, ZillaParishad CEO Lakshminarayana, District Panchayat Officer Bikshapathi and other officials attended the programme.

Asifabad Collector stresses holistic development of Tiriyani villages

HDFC Bank-CYDO project focuses on basic amenities, education, healthcare and employment

KUMURAMBHEEMASIFABAD

DISTRICT Collector K. Haritha has stressed the need to strengthen basic infrastructure and improve living standards in remote villages of Tiriyanimandal through the Holistic Rural Development Project, jointly undertaken by HDFC Bank and CYDO.

The project was formally launched by Additional Collector (Local Bodies) YuvrajMarmat at the Tribal Welfare Ashram School in Tiriyani on Thursday.

Haritha called for identifying village-level needs in education, healthcare, drinking water, irrigation, nutrition, roads and employment. She urged officials to coordinate with sarpanches and women's self-help groups to ensure development works suit local requirements and government welfare schemes reach eligible beneficiaries. She also highlighted the need to extend similar initiatives to Lingapur and Sirpur (U) mandals. Later, officials inspected the land re-survey at Duggapur and a damaged low-level bridge between Duggapur and Goyagaon. Engineering officials were directed to take up immediate repairs.

HDFC Bank and CYDO representatives, local officials and public representatives participated.

Kamareddy Collector calls for bonded labour-free society

'Sweccha Ratham' launched in Kamareddy to spread awareness of workers' rights and rehabilitation support

HANS NEWS SERVICE
KAMAREDDY

DISTRICT Collector Ashish Sangwan on Thursday called for collective efforts to eradicate bonded labour and protect workers' rights. He flagged off the 'SwecchaRatham' awareness vehicle to educate vulnerable communities about the issue. The Collector directed officials to conduct extensive awareness campaigns in rural areas and workplaces, particularly among labourers in agriculture, brick kilns, fisheries, mines and quarries. He stressed the need for prompt action on complaints, rescue of victims and provision of rehabilitation assistance.

Despite the Bonded Labour System (Abolition) Act, incidents continue to surface in some areas, he noted. Victims and those aware of such cases can contact the toll-free helpline 080-69434343.

Assistant Labour Commissioner Dr MunnamShashikumar administered a pledge to officials to work together to identify, rescue and rehabilitate victims. Officials from various departments and the International Justice Mission attended.

Collector urges public to conserve water, electricity amid El Niño concerns

OFFICIALS TOLD TO MONITOR WATER AVAILABILITY AND ENSURE UNINTERRUPTED DRINKING WATER SUPPLY

HANS NEWS SERVICE
JAYASHANKARBHUPALPALLY

DISTRICT Collector Rahul Sharma has urged people to conserve water and electricity in view of the possible impact of El Niño, which may lead to reduced rainfall and higher temperatures in the coming days.

In a statement issued on Thursday, the Collector advised people to use drinking and irrigation water judiciously and avoid wastage. He stressed the importance of rainwater harvesting to recharge groundwater and improve groundwater levels.

He also appealed to the public to switch off lights, fans and other electrical appliances when not in use to conserve power. The Collector directed district officials to take advance measures to tackle possible El Niño-related challenges. He instructed them to regularly monitor water availability in rural and urban areas and ensure an uninterrupted drinking water supply. Rahul Sharma called upon citizens to treat water and electricity conservation as a social responsibility and cooperate with the district administration.

Farmers face heavy losses due to government negligence: BJP

Ritesh Rathod inspects drought-hit crops, demands immediate survey and compensation

HANS NEWS SERVICE
KHANAPUR

NIRMAL District BJP President RiteshRathod accused the Congress government of negligence in addressing drought conditions, alleging that its failure to act on advance weather warnings had resulted in severe crop losses.

Rathod visited drought-affected Chitaly, Bellal, Maddipadaga and Vakil Nagar Thanda villages in Kademmandal and inspected withered crops. He interacted with farmers and enquired about their losses and difficulties. He said the drought had left farmers distressed, with little hope of recovering their cultivation investments, potentially pushing many into debt. Despite warnings about possible drought conditions linked to El Niño, the government had failed to take preventive measures, he alleged.

Rathod demanded an immediate crop loss survey by agricultural officials and fair compensation for all affected farmers.

He urged the government to respond promptly to farmers' hardships, warning that the BJP would intensify protests if adequate support was not provided.

Several BJP leaders, local representatives and affected farmers participated in the visit.
